THE MISSION OF THE REGIONAL FOOD BANK IS TO ALLEVIATE HUNGER AND PREVENT FOOD WASTE.

WE WORK TOWARD THIS MISSION
BY ENSURING THAT ALL PRODUCTS AVAILABLE FOR DONATION REACH THE FOOD BANK AND ARE DISTRIBUTED JUDICIOUSLY TO OUR MEMBER AGENCIES.

Dear Friends,

In 2013, the Regional Food Bank provided 30,431,751 pounds of food and other grocery products to our 1,000 member agencies, a 10% increase over 2012. Honestly, we surprised ourselves. I never thought the Food Bank would reach such a high level of distribution.

People often tell me it is sad there even has to be a Food Bank, and especially that it must continue to expand to meet the growing need. That is true. But as an organization we can't control the number of people who need our help, we can only control what we do about it – and we are doing more than ever. We know that without our help, thousands of children, parents, and seniors would go hungry, and that is unacceptable.

I thank everyone who helped the Regional Food Bank in 2013 by donating food, volunteering, contributing financially, or assisting in any other way. I also thank our member agencies and staff for the wonderful work they do every day. Together we are making an important difference in the lives of thousands of our neighbors in need.

Sincerely,

Mark Quandt
Executive Director

---

Dear Friends,

As we reflect on 2013, many challenges help us to see the difficulties faced by our families, friends, and neighbors. The loss of a job, the foreclosure on a home, or an illness with subsequent healthcare costs can send lives spiraling out of control. People struggling with basic needs reached out for the Food Bank's services in greater numbers.

On the positive side: 2013 brought more people and organizations providing support for the Food Bank's goals and mission. People who had resources to share selected the Food Bank to help their hungry neighbors. Organizations and businesses helped to expand the Food Bank's reach.

With the assistance of Our Family Foundation, Backpack Programs were established for the first time at the Food Bank of the Hudson Valley. More schools were added as Walmart and C & S Wholesale Grocers joined in the efforts.

Volunteers helped with mailings, office work, and food distribution. The value of their assistance and friendship to the Food Bank is much appreciated.

It is with the assistance of so many people, from the change donated by a child to large gifts from foundations and businesses that has made more than two decades of success possible. The community's support for the Food Bank should be heralded. As times have gotten tough, the people of the Hudson Valley have increasingly reached out to those most in need.

We extend our gratitude for that support.

Sincerely,

Jan Whitman
Director
Food Bank of the Hudson Valley

POUNDAGE AND PROGRAMS

The Regional Food bank provided 30.4 million pounds of food to its member agencies and the hungry people they serve in 2013, a 71% increase since 2007. Over 250,000 people benefited from the assistance the Food Bank provided.

The need has increased dramatically during these difficult economic times, and the Food Bank has been asked to do much more. Fortunately, our generous community has responded in a big way. Food and monetary donations were strong in 2013, and more people than ever donated their time and services to assist us with sorting and repacking food in the warehouse, volunteering at the Farm or in the office, and serving on fundraising committees. We could not have met the increased need without the tremendous help we received from the community.

Over 250 food industry businesses donated food and non-food grocery items, and hundreds of individuals generously contributed through food drives and other efforts to make it possible for the Food Bank to serve its member agencies. Donations are received from food companies throughout our 23-county service area and from national companies through our relationship with Feeding America, the national network of food banks. The Regional Food Bank accepts products that are surplus, off-size or color, discontinued, close-to-code/best-used by date, shipped in error...unmarketable for whatever reason, but still good to use. For donations that come in bulk or are cosmetically damaged, volunteers and staff work to make these donations usable for our member agencies by sorting and repacking them.

The Food Bank completed its eighth year of operating the Patroon Land Farm in 2013. To date, over 650,000 pounds of produce have been harvested at the Farm for the Food Bank's member agencies. Our Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) program grew to 496 members last year, providing the Farm with more financial stability and an opportunity to expand its acreage to grow more vegetables to feed the hungry.

AGENCY SERVICES AND PROGRAMS

backpack program

The BackPack Program helps alleviate child hunger by providing at-risk children with nutritious and easy-to-prepare food on weekends, when other resources may not be available. The Food Bank provides backpacks filled with child-friendly and easy to prepare food each Friday during the school year. In 2013, the program expanded from 32 to 57 schools and is serving over 1,250 children in 17 counties.

summer food service program

As a sponsor of this federal program, the Food Bank prepares nutritious breakfasts and lunches and partners with community agencies to serve them to low-income school aged children throughout the summer, when school breakfasts and lunches are not available. The Food Bank sponsors sites in Albany, Montgomery and Fulton Counties. In 2013, the Food Bank provided over 18,000 meals to children through the Summer Food Service Program. (USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.)

snap outreach

People who seek food from the Regional Food Bank's network of member agencies are often eligible for SNAP benefits (formerly the Food Stamp program). However, due to stigma, perceived difficulties with the application process, and other barriers, people often don't apply for these benefits. The result is not only a struggle for those in need, but increased demand at our feeding programs, and fewer federal dollars flowing into the local economy. To help address this problem, the Food Bank launched a SNAP Outreach Program in 2013. Our SNAP Outreach Coordinator visits member agencies and other programs serving SNAP eligible populations and helps prescreen clients for SNAP and facilitate their enrollment.

mass distribution program

The Food Bank's Mass Distributions – also called Mobile Pantries – supply people in low-income neighborhoods with surplus food on a monthly basis. Mass Distributions give people food over and above what they may receive at a food pantry, helping them stretch their limited dollars and giving their nutrition a boost through the provision of food like yogurt, juice, and fresh produce. A total of 4,185,262 pounds were distributed at Mass Distribution sites in 2013.

just say yes to fruits and vegetables

The Just Say Yes Fruits and Vegetables nutrition education program is offered at member agencies and other community organizations serving SNAP eligible individuals. Each workshop provides practical nutrition information through recipes and cooking demonstrations focused on fruits and vegetables.

patroon land farm

The Regional Food Bank, in partnership with the Patroon Land Foundation, manages a 15-acre Farm for the purpose of growing vegetables for distribution to the Food Bank's member agencies and the hungry people they serve. In 2013, 161,588 pounds of produce were harvested. A portion of the produce was used in the Farm's Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) program that helps fund the Farm's operation. Since the Food Bank took over operations of the Farm in 2006, it has produced more than 900,000 pounds of fresh food.

kids cafe

Kids Cafes are soup kitchens for children. In addition to providing healthy meals in a safe atmosphere, Kids Cafes offer athletic activities, homework assistance and nutrition and culinary education to disadvantaged youth. The Food Bank currently operates a Kids Cafe at the Schenectady Boys & Girls Club's Mont Pleasant site. In 2013, 9,684 meals and 3,978 snacks were provided to kids at our Kids Cafe program.

one-on-one support

Our Agency Relations staff works hard to address the changing needs of our member agencies and offer them support. Food Bank staff members analyze agency ordering patterns to ensure agencies optimize their use of the Food Bank. Our Nutritionist analyzes the quality and quantity of foods agencies provide and offers assistance to boost the nutritive value of what clients receive. In addition, the Agency Relations team educates member agency staff so they can provide resources beyond emergency food, such as information on SNAP, affordable health care, and nutrition.

agency education

The Food Bank provides agencies a wide variety of workshops on a monthly basis, such as:

- Advocacy
- Accommodating Special Diets
- Agency Best Practices
- Cooking Without a Kitchen
- Disaster Preparedness
- Food Bank Orientation
- Food Safety
- Fundraising 101
- Grant Writing
- Menu Planning
- Outreach Opportunities
- Overcoming Burnout
- Pantry Tours
- Understanding Federal Nutrition Programs
- What's in a Bag?
- And More!

THANK YOU

THE STAFF OF THE REGIONAL FOOD BANK AND FOOD BANK OF THE HUDSON VALLEY WOULD LIKE TO EXTEND A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO ALL WHO HELPED US IN 2013 WITH FOOD DONATIONS, FUNDRAISING, VOLUNTEER EFFORTS, AND IN A MULTITUDE OF OTHER WAYS. WE ARE GRATEFUL FOR THE TIME, ENERGY, AND RESOURCES OUR GENEROUS COMMUNITY PROVIDED TO ENSURE WE WERE ABLE TO HELP AS MANY PEOPLE AS POSSIBLE DURING A TIME WHEN IT WAS SO DESPERATELY NEEDED.

how you can help

donate time and talent

Volunteers are vital to the Food Bank's operation and contribute in countless ways. Sorting food, picking produce at our farm, or raising money at a fundraising event - there are endless varieties of enjoyable, rewarding tasks that volunteers perform every day.

make a monetary or in-kind donation

Financial donations sustain the Food Bank and enrich the larger community by providing nourishment, dignity, and a sense of sharing to all involved. Funds come from grants, special events, and contributions, and each donation makes a meaningful difference. In-kind donations come in many forms, from printing to paving and more. These donations allow the Food Bank to get more food to hungry people.

donate food

Food donations are at the core of the Food Bank's work. Food companies donate their edible but unsaleable food, and individuals and organizations conduct food drives at all times of the year. Non-food items like paper goods and cleaning supplies are also donated. These products are provided to food pantries, soup kitchens, and other agencies serving people in need.

spread the word

Did you have a great time volunteering in our warehouse or on the Farm? Spread the word! Let your friends know, and encourage them to volunteer! Find us on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram to keep up with what's going on at the Food Bank, and share our page with your friends. With your help, we are alleviating hunger, together.
